GAME 1 (0-1, 0-0 BIG EAST)
NOV. 25, 2003
COPPIN STATE 75 ■ PITTSBURGH 61
PETERSEN EVENTS CENTER (544)

The debut of Head Coach Agnus Berenato did not go as planned as the Pittsburgh women's basketball team could not overcome a poor shooting night from the field, dropping a 75-61 decision to visiting Coppin State on Nov. 25 at the Petersen Events Center. The Panthers fell to 0-1 while the Lady Eagles (1-1) notched their first win of the year.

In a foul-laden first half, Pittsburgh opened the game by taking a 9-4 advantage four minutes into the game. Coppin State came back and grabbed an 18-16 lead, following a 14-7 spurt over the next seven minutes.

Jessica Allen drilled a 3-pointer at the 4:55 mark of the first half to give the Panthers a 31-26 lead, but the Lady Eagles fought back and held a narrow 39-37 halftime margin.

The Lady Eagles came out on fire in the second half and went on a game-clinching 17-4 run in the first seven minutes thanks to eight points from Leisel Harry. Pittsburgh would close the gap to nine points (62-53) at the 7:30 mark of the game, but the lead ballooned back to 21 points, 74-53, in the closing minutes to seal the fate of the Panthers.

Pittsburgh shot just 33 percent (19 of 58) from the field in the game and made only 3-of-10 shots from behind the 3-point arc. Coppin State hit 49 percent (30 of 61) of its shots from the field and 15-of-20 shots from the charity stripe.

Latoya Kincaid posted her first career double-double, finishing with 14 points and 11 rebounds. Bridget Larkin had a career-high 13 points, while Allen tallied 11 points.

Harry led all scorers with 23 points for the Lady Eagles.

NOTES: Pittsburgh is 5-2 in its last seven season openers. Last year, the Panthers defeated Robert Morris, 90-51, in their season opener, the first game ever at the Petersen Events Center...Sheila Stuffleet finished with 10 points and eight rebounds in 39 minutes of action...Pittsburgh had 41 rebounds to Coppin State's 37.

DUQUESNE 92 ■ PITTSBURGH 80
PETERSEN EVENTS CENTER (453)

Despite career nights from three different Panthers, Pittsburgh could not overcome a red-hot shooting performance from Duquesne as it dropped a 92-80 decision to the Dukes.

The Dukes came out on fire in the first half, shooting 69 percent (20 of 29) from the field and 80 percent (8 of 10) from behind the 3-point arc. Pittsburgh managed to shoot just 38 percent (11 of 29) from the field and found itself down 54-28 at intermission.

After the Panthers grabbed a 5-4 lead in the game's first minute, Duquesne went on a 25-10 run over the next eight minutes to take a 29-15 advantage midway through the half. The lead was stretched to as many as 28 points on two occasions before the Dukes went to halftime up 16 points.

The beginning of the second half seemed the same as the first 20 minutes as Duquesne continued its hot streak from the field. However, Pittsburgh never quit and mounted a rally to give the Dukes a scare.

Trailing 81-59 with 6:12 remaining in the game, the Panthers came back with a 16-4 run to pull within 10 points (85-75) with just under two minutes left in the contest.

Duquesne was able to hold off the rally, though, by making 7-of-8 foul shots down the stretch and earning its fourth straight win over Pittsburgh.

The Panthers shot 36 percent (24 of 67) from the field in the game, but hit 80 percent (24 of 30) of their foul shots. The Dukes hit a Petersen Events Center-record 61 percent (28 of 46) of their field goals, including an amazing 71 percent (12 of 17) from 3-point range.

Latoya Kincaid poured in a career-high 25 points (9-of-15 shooting) and pulled down seven boards. Kunich also added a personal-best 21 points with five 3-pointers while Histed finished with a career-high 16 points on 5-of-8 shooting.

Candace Futrell led Duquesne with 25 points, hitting 5-of-6 3-pointers.

A jumper by Stacy Moore at the 18:19 mark of the first half gave Pittsburgh a 6-5 lead, but that was short-lived. Penn State scored 15 unanswered points over the next three-and-a-half minutes to take a 20-6 advantage, thanks to eight points from Kelly Mazzante.

The lead ballooned to as many as 35 points (49-14) later in the half and the Lady Lions went to halftime with a 54-21 lead.

In the first 20 minutes, Pittsburgh hit 43 percent from the field (9 of 21) but allowed Penn State to hit 51 percent (18 of 35) of its field goals, including 4 of 7 from behind the 3-point arc.

GAME 24 (6-18, 2-12 BIG EAST)

FEB. 21, 2004

NOTRE DAME 72 ■ PITTSBURGH 68
PETERSEN EVENTS CENTER (7,814)

Pittsburgh's women's basketball team came up just short of knocking off Notre Dame as it fell to the Fighting Irish, 72-68, on Feb. 21 in front of 7,814 at the Petersen Events Center. The Panthers dropped their 10th straight game to fall to 6-18 overall and 2-12 in the Big East, while Notre Dame improved to 17-8 and 10-3 in the conference.

After falling behind by 14 points, 55-41, with just over 16 minutes remaining in the contest, Pittsburgh put the clamps on the Fighting Irish and clawed its way back into the contest. The Panthers went on a 16-3 run over the next eight minutes, capped off by a free throw from freshman Jennifer Brown to pull them to within one point, 58-57.

Notre Dame stretched the lead back to six points, 63-57, but once again Pittsburgh refused to go away. The Panthers eventually grabbed the lead, 68-67, on a desperation 3-pointer by junior guard Amy Kunich. Kunich's 3-pointer hit nothing by nylon as the shot clock expired with 2:18 remaining.

However, the Fighting Irish scored the game's final five points, including 5-of-8 free throws in the final 1:31 of the contest, to pick up the win and stay unbeaten in 14 tries against Pittsburgh in the all-time series.

The Panthers shot 44 percent (27 of 62) from the field and 35 percent (6 of 17) from behind the 3-point arc in the game. The Fighting Irish hit 57 percent (26 of 46) of its field goals and 42 percent (5 of 12) of its 3-pointers.

Notre Dame led 40-37 at the intermission after Pittsburgh took a three-point lead (35-32) with just under two minutes remaining in the first half.

Latoya Kincaid led all scorers with 24 points before fouling out with over five minutes to go in the game. Kincaid also pulled down six rebounds and added three steals. Brown added 12 points and a game-high nine boards for the Panthers while Katie Histed pitched in 11 markers, including three 3-pointers.

Jacqueline Batteast led Notre Dame with 17 points and eight rebounds.

NOTES: Pittsburgh outrebounded Notre Dame, 32-30...the Panthers had 11 steals to the Fighting Irish' nine...the 7,814 in attendance was the second-largest crowd at the Petersen Events Center for a women's game. Last year against Connecticut, Pittsburgh drew 12,687.
